

Human Dignity: The fundamental worth of individual human beings as image bearers of God who are free and responsible human beings with the capacity to flourish.

Love: The active display of behaviors towards another human being which affirm his or her human dignity.

Kindness: An individual human being acting and speaking in such a manner which empowers the individual to replicate similar behaviors towards the self and others.

Generosity: The individual behavior to freely distribute resources in a manner which corresponds to the capacity of the generous individual and supports the recipient's stated needs or goals.

Courage: The behavior of an individual to act freely in the presence of difficult situations stimulating personal growth or assisting others who are experiencing difficult situations.

Humanizing Servant Leadership: The individual whose self-interest to serve others identifies the significance of another human being and works to cultivate within that individual a desire to lead other individuals who over time become servant leaders.

